Empowerment Through Social Media

The inaugural edition of Student Voices-Global Perspectives is devoted to exploring the use of social media in contemporary culture. We are seeking articles, reviews, commentary, art, poetry, and photos focused on the ways youth and ordinary citizens use social media as tools for self-and-community empowerment. Following the initial launch, SVGP will be published quarterly. Each issue will have a theme chosen by the readers of SVGP. The first publication will be available for download June 15th, 2015. All submissions must be your original creative work that has not appeared in any other publication.

All contributions must be received by May 15th, 2015 to
